rancho

Ten years ago after my father had died my aunt, Alejandra Redo, invited us to build a house on her ranch, El Arbolito in Sonora. As a child we had the neighbouring ranch but hadn't been back since I was ten. The ranch is full of textures that we incorporated into many new designs presented here and is an infinite well of inspiration. Casamidy is a very personal endeavour at it's root and we are happy to be able to share this very special place with you.
